

Contact the Library

Members of the Library staff are committed to helping users find, evaluate, and use sources of information. Princeton students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to contact the Library if they have a question or comment. Librarians and other staff in the branch libraries and at service points such as the Reference Desk in Firestone will gladly provide help in person, by e-mail, by telephone, or by instant messaging. Here are some ways of contacting us:

- > Call the Information Desk: 609-258-4820.
- > Call the Reference Desk: 609-258-5964.
- > Follow the link from CONTACT THE LIBRARY on the Library home page if you would like to recommend that the Library purchase an item that it does not hold, or an additional copy of an item that is in great demand. Requests can be made for books, journals, databases, sound recordings, videos, maps—any type of material the Library collects.
- > Click on the CHAT button on the Library home page to chat with a librarian via IM. Scroll down for the link to instructions on getting started.
- > Click on the E-MAIL button on the Library home page or send an e-mail message to refdesk@princeton.edu if you would like a librarian to answer a question.
- > Click on the APPOINTMENT button on the Library home page or send an e-mail message to refdesk@princeton.edu if you would like to make an appointment to meet with a librarian.
- > Get in touch with a Library subject specialist (see the list on pages 30–31), or use the SUBJECT SPECIALISTS link on the Library home page.
