

Index to Volume LXXIV

(2012–2013)

Page numbers in italics indicate illustrations. Roman numerals identify the issue
(I = Autumn; II = Winter; III = Spring).

- Aeneid* (Virgil): annotations in Princeton's 1532 edition, II: 141, 146, 149, 152–55, 159, 160–63, 164–65, 165–66, 167, 168, 171–75
- “The Air of a Real Tour’: Women Writers and the First Narrative Geographies for Children, 1790–1828,” by Paris Amanda Spies-Gans, II: 210–51
- “American Students and French Novels,” by André Maurois, translated by Carol Rigolot, I: 35–46
- Anderson, Washington F., 68; conversion to Mormonism, I: 80–83, 85–86; medical training, I: 73–75; migration to California, I: 77–80
- “The Appearances of ‘Monsieur Alexandre’ in Firestone Library,” by Suzanne Nash, III: 281–319
- “Around the World in Eighty Spaces,” by Marie-Hélène Huet, III: 397–414
- “Augusto Monterroso in the Latin American Literary Field,” by Alejandro Lambarry, I: 102–9
- Awashima, Kangetsu, III: 336, 337; Jūshū gachō [Zodiac sketch book], III: 337
- Benítez Rojo, Antonio, 89; literary biography of, I: 87–101
- Bly, Nellie: trip around the world, III: 411–12; visits J. Verne, III: 412
- board games: based on Around the World in Eighty Days, III: 397, 398–99, 400–401, 402–3, 405–7, 407–8, 409; based on Nellie Bly's travels, III: 411–14, 413–14; Game of the Goose, III: 401, 410–11
- Bonneville, Louis de: connection with A. Vattemare, III: 313, 316; and mesmerism, III: 316–18
- Boston Public Library, III: 293, 295
- Brian, Amanda M., “Listening to Lothar Meggendorfer's Nineteenth-Century Moving Picture Books,” III: 366–96
- Chen, Minjie, “To Have Friends Come from Afar—Isn't That a Joy?” III: 415–22
- childhood development: 19th-century theories of hearing, III: 388–90
- Clark, Frederic, “Glossing Glossators: Reading Servius Reading Virgil in Early Modern Scholarship,” II: 139–77
- Clarke, Matthew F., “Jean Labatut and Éducation à pied d'œuvre: The Princeton Architectural Laboratory,” II: 178–209
- commentary: early modern tradition of, II: 141–52, 155–77
- Confucius: 1730 statue of, III: 419–22; temple of in Qufu, III: 416–22
- Corticelli, María Rita, “A Revolution from the Archives: Insight from Antonio Benítez Rojo's Papers,” I: 87–101

- Dean & Son: publisher of movable books for children, III:368, 369
- “The Designs of Kawasaki Kyosen: Envisioning the Future of a Vanishing World through Toy Pictures (Omocha-e),” by Tara M. McGowan, III:320–65
- Devis, Ellin: author of geography primer, II:217–19
- England/English: compared with other nations in geography primers, II:212, 225, 237, 238, 241–43, 248
- Estienne, Robert: printer of Princeton’s 1532 Virgil, II:145–46
- Field, Richard Stockton: owner of Woodlawn (Guernsey Hall), I:24–25
- Finlay, Nancy, “Remembering Dale Roylance,” III:423–28
- Frémont, John C., III:309, 311–12
- geography primers: audiences for, II:214–16, 248–49; background in Britain, II:213–17; and lack of opportunities for female travel, II:212, 249; written by women, II:210–13, 230–33, 246–51
- “Glossing Glossators: Reading Servius Reading Virgil in Early Modern Scholarship,” by Frederic Clark, II:139–77
- Gossman, Lionel, “A Note on André Maurois,” I:47–61
- Greiff, Constance M., “Princeton’s Mythical Gardener,” I:9–33
- Guernsey Hall (Princeton): history of its landscaping, I:18, 24–25, 26–27, 28–29
- Gunning, Wanda S., “Princeton’s Mythical Gardener,” I:9–33
- Hack, Maria: author of geography primer, II:227
- Helme, Elizabeth: author of geography primer, II:222
- Hibben, Jenny: and the history of Prospect landscaping, I:14–15, 17
- Hofland, Barbara: author of geography primers, II:228–30, 236–40
- Huet, Marie-Hélène, “Around the World in Eighty Spaces,” III:397–414
- Immel, Andrea, “Cover Note,” III:439–42
- “In Honor of Dale Roylance,” by Julie Mellby, III:429–30
- “Jean Labatut and Éducation à pied d’œuvre: The Princeton Architectural Laboratory,” by Matthew F. Clarke, II:178–209
- Kawasaki, Kyosen, III:320; ideas about traditional toys, III:332, 340, 349–63, 364; and the Japanese toy-collecting community, III:337, 338, 350, 351–55; Omocha-e shū [Toy picture collection], III:337–38, 339, 340, 341–46, 347–48, 348, 349; Omocha gafu [Toy album], III:322, 350–55, 356, 357–58, 358–59, 360, 361, 362–63; Omocha jūnishi [Toys of the twelve zodiac animals], III:327, 331
- Labatut, Jean, 182; Church of the Four Evangelists, II:203–4; education in France, II:181–83; fascination with Palmer Stadium, II:191–96; founds Bureau of Urban Research at Princeton, II:190–91; founds Princeton Architectural Laboratory, II:178, 188–90, 196–203; friendship with Jacques Maritain, II:188–89, 203–4; vision for the Princeton campus, II:207–8
- Lambarry, Alejandro, “Augusto Monterroso in the Latin American Literary Field,” I:102–9
- “Listening to Lothar Meggendorfer’s Nineteenth-Century Moving Pic-

- ture Books,” by Amanda M. Brian, III:366–96
- Lockley, Philip, “Washington F. Anderson: Doctor, Gold Rusher, Mormon,” I:69–86
- Longfellow, Henry W., III:316, 317ⁿ⁷³
- Lyon, Dr. Charles Hodge, III:415–16; photographs of temple of Confucius, III:416–20
- Marquand, Eleanor C.: and the history Guernsey Hall landscaping, I:18
- Maurois, André, 34; “American Students and French Novels,” I:35–46; biographical note by Lionel Gossman, I:47–61; impressions of Princeton, I:61–67
- McGowan, Tara M., “The Designs of Kawasaki Kyosen: Envisioning the Future of a Vanishing World through Toy Pictures (Omocha-e),” III:320–65
- Meggendorfer, Lothar, III:384; Always Jolly, III:373–74, 374–75, 381–82, 382; aural dimension of his children’s books, III:374–88, 391–96; creator of movable books for children, III:366, 372; early life and career, III:370–71, 388; Immer Lustig, III:379; Lustiges Automaten-Theater, III:387; revival of his works, III:368, 370; Schau mich an, III:385; Vor dem Thore, III:392–93
- Melanchthon, Philipp: as commentator on Virgil, II:142–43, 148, 168
- Mellby, Julie “In Honor of Dale Roylance,” III:429–30
- mesmerism, III:319; in the United States, III:316–18
- Mister, Mary: author of geography primers, II:24–25
- Monterroso, Augusto, 103; literary biography of, I:102–9
- Morven (Princeton): home of the Stockton family, I:10–14
- Nash, Suzanne, “The Appearances of ‘Monsieur Alexandre’ in Firestone Library,” III:281–319
- Nister, Ernest: publisher of movable books for children, III:368–69
- Noice, Edward: gardener at Woodlawn (Guernsey Hall), I:29–30
- “A Note on André Maurois,” by Lionel Gossman, I:47–61
- Notman, John: architect of Princeton homes, I:9, 25, 26
- ōdomo* associations (Japanese toy connoisseurs), III:334–36, 338, 350–55, 363–64
- omocha* (Japanese folk toys): collectors of, III:321, 334–36, 338, 350–55, 363–64; definition and cultural significance of, III:321–24
- omocha-e* (Japanese toy pictures): definition of, III:324–27
- precepts at Princeton University: observed by André Maurois, I:35–46
- Preyer, Wilhelm: theories of childhood sensory development, III:388–90
- Princeton Architectural Laboratory, II:178, 179, 200, 201, 205; philosophical background of, II:178–80, 188–90, 196–203, 209; research at, II:205–6
- Princeton School of Architecture, II:189, 204–5, 207–8
- “Princeton’s Mythical Gardener,” by Constance M. Greiff and Wanda S. Gunning, I:9–33
- Prospect (Princeton): history of its landscaping, I:14–15, 16, 17, 22–23
- Ratcliffe, Stephen J., “Cover Note,” II:263–70
- “Remembering Dale Roylance,” by Nancy Finlay, III:423–28

- “A Revolution from the Archives: Insight from Antonio Benítez Rojo’s Papers,” by Maria Rita Corticelli, I: 87–101
- Rigolot, Carol: translator of André Maurois, “American Students and French Novels,” I: 35–46
- R[oberts], E[lizabeth]: author of geography primer, II: 218, 219–21
- Roylance, Dale, III: 427; career as curator of Graphic Arts, III: 423–28
- Sangorski, Alberto: background, II: 263–64; illuminated manuscripts, II: 264–70
- Sangorski & Sutcliffe: jeweled bindings, II: 264, 265
- Scott, Sir Walter, III: 287–88
- Servius Honoratus, Maurus: as commentator on Virgil, II: 144, 145–49; in early modern scholarship, II: 155–60, 169–77; and historia, II: 149–50, 152–55, 160–69
- Sherwood, Mary Martha: author of geography primer, II: 225–26, 235–36; her evangelical agenda, II: 234–35
- Shimizu, Seifū: and Japanese folk toy movement, III: 333, 334, 336; Unai no tomo [Companions of children], III: 333, 335, 349, 349–50
- Skemer, Don C., “Cover Note,” I: 115–21
- Spies-Gans, Paris Amanda, “‘The Air of a Real Tour’: Women Writers and the First Narrative Geographies for Children, 1790–1828,” II: 210–51
- Stockton, Helen Hamilton: and the history of Morven, I: 9–10, 13–14, 33
- textual amulets, I: 115–21
- “To Have Friends Come from Afar— Isn’t That a Joy?” by Minjie Chen, III: 415–22
- Vattemare, Nicolas-Marie-Alexandre: acting career, III: 285–88, 306–9; advocates system of international cultural exchange, III: 288–99; Album cosmopolite, III: 291, 302–5, 312–13; his American library in Paris, III: 292, 293–94, 297–99; collection of autographs, III: 301–2; correspondence with J. C. Frémont, III: 309, 311–12; early life, III: 284–85; and founding of the Boston Public Library, III: 293, 295; and numismatics, III: 299–301; portraits and caricatures of, III: 280, 287, 296, 306, 308, 309, 310; relationship with Smithsonian Institution, III: 295, 297; travels to North America, III: 291–93, 309, 313–14, 315–16
- Venning, Mary Anne: author of geography primer, II: 225
- Verne, Jules: Around the World in Eighty Days, III: 397–400, 404–5, 409; Le Testament d’un excentrique, III: 409–11
- Wakefield, Patricia: author of geography primers, II: 223–24, 240–46; focus on empire and ethical behavior, II: 241–43
- “Washington F. Anderson: Doctor, Gold Rusher, Mormon,” by Philip Lockley, I: 69–86
- Wilson, Lucy (Sarah Atkins): author of geography primers, II: 227–28