join trego!

Did you have a “moment” during that concert? Are you so jealous of your happy singing friends? Have you just been through a breakup and need a choir fam to keep you warm through the winter? Are you suddenly nostalgic for your high school choir glory days?

don’t worry—we’re here for you!

Trego is a community of Princeton humans (though we'd be open to non-humans) who love to sing. Among us, you’ll find undergraduates, grad students, staff, sets of roommates, siblings, a husband and wife... it’s a lovely choir fam, and you are most welcome to join it. If you’d like to get on the roster or have any questions, email Steph at stubiolo@princeton.edu.
